Thank you very much for your letter of 21 November.

Since your visit with me, we have been exploring various possibilities of expanding the activities which we discussed. While we have not yet accomplished what we had hoped for in this respect, there are still other prospects which we are looking into and which may in time develop favorably. I understand that Fred will be in touch with you shortly concerning certain financial arrangements which I hope will meet with your approval.

I appreciate your good invitation to join you in duck hunting, but with the season soon drawing to a close, I am afraid it will be impossible this year.

Again, many thanks for your past cooperation and my best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Miss Kelsey:

Your letter of December 22, 1957, addressed to the National Security Council, Washington, D. C., has been referred to this office since the National Security Council has no background material on OSS.

The CIA does not have the information on OSS that you request. However, I am enclosing, for your possible use as a theme, some material on the CIA which came into being in 1947.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Sir:

My name is Freya Kelsey and I am a junior at Lake Oswego High School, Oswego, Oregon. In my history class we are required to write a fifteen page term report. I am doing the Office of Strategic Services.

I would appreciate any information you could send me. If you do not have this information could you please tell me where to write to get this information.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Freya Kelsey
